MICATO SAFARIS

Micato Safaris was founded almost 50 years ago by Felix and Jane Pinto on the premise that each Micato safari client would be treated as if they were “a well-loved, out-of-town relative.” This commitment has ensured that each guest continues to define their Micato Safari experience as “unlike any other - where you are a VIP everywhere you go. That the safari is a blend of excitement and elegance; a place of delightful surprises and uncommon luxury.” Today, Micato's African Safaris run the gamut: The company's ten “Classic” scheduled safaris (offering year-round, small-group departures) venture to the quintessential parks and attractions in East and South Africa and explore tribal cultures and rituals. Other options include private, off-the-beaten path “Bespoke” journeys that are custom-crafted according to your schedule, budget and whims – ranging from a classic safari, a private off-the-beaten path journey, to a personal exploration of Africa's tribal cultures and rituals – and that's just the beginning of the many unique and distinct safari experiences Micato offers. Safari styles vary from “Romantic Celebrations” and “With the Family” to “Remote and Exotic,” “The Very Finest,” “Adventurous and Active,” as well as the enticing itinerary “For Gourmands, Golfers, Etc.”

Voted the “#1 World's Best Safari Outfitter” an unprecedented nine times by readers of Travel+Leisure Magazine, Micato Safaris is the only tour operator in Travel+Leisure's Hall of Fame and has been named Travel+Leisure's “World's Best Value” on “every poll ever taken.” There are other important reasons why we recommend Micato Safaris: Micato's “One for One Commitment” means that for every safari Micato sells, they send a child to school – a child who otherwise would never have the opportunity for an education because of extreme poverty. Besides the accolades this company continues to receive and their commitment to providing an education to deserving youngsters, you can be assured that you will be in capable, knowledgeable hands and that Micato Safaris prides itself on having an “industry-unique security blanket” in place for each departure (which, by the way... is 100% guaranteed.) Their 24-hour Concierge Team – available at all times in Nairobi, Cape Town, Johannesburg and Arusha – are at the ready to handle any last-minute, unexpected and/or unusual requests or situations. Additionally, a highly-trained, highly-credentialed Micato Safari Director accompanies every East African safari. And not only will your safari director be your guide, he will also quickly become your friend.

Micato always works to keep its finger on the pulse of the travel industry and to try new things. For instance, Micato was one of the first tour operators several years ago to introduce a “no-tipping” policy as all gratuities are included – from beginning to end – on a Micato safari. And new for the coming year, Micato wants to give you, your family and traveling companions – traveling on a scheduled “Classic” departure – the opportunity to make your safari a little more private. Now, when choosing one of Micato's ten “Classic” safaris, you will have the option of making your departure a private one by having your own safari vehicle and your own experienced, professional Safari Director all to yourselves for your entire journey.

Also new at Micato are enhancements to popular existing safaris. For instance, “Hemingway Wing Safari,” will now include a moving, fascinating experience on selected departures: A chance, while in Kenya, to join the Samburu scouts and lion researchers of the renowned Ewaso Lions Project for a hands-on look at their efforts to preserve Kenya's lion population.

While in Kenya for “Hemingway Wing,” you are certain to be “rendered breathless” by the majestic rolling grasslands of the Maasai Mara. The Tanzania portion includes the vast wildlife-rich plains of the Serengeti, the beguiling volcanic wilderness of the Ngorongoro Crater, and the fluttering flamingos at Lake Manyara National Park.

Indeed... Welcome to Micato's Africa – The Journey Awaits!
